Verse 1

The river rolls, the salmon spawn and die in Your embrace

This precious web of life is spun by Your amazing grace.

Verse 2

Born into love, shaped by Your hands, now bonded to this place

Our feet like roots sunk in the earth until we see Your face.

Verse 3

Along life's winding paths and trails our restless hearts roam

As spirits made flesh, we dance and trip along the way back home.

Verse 4

The love of wealth and lust for more at times is all we see

The heart launched into selfless love is what may set us free.

Verse 5 (repeat of verse 1)

The river rolls, the salmon spawn and die in Your embrace

This precious web of life is spun by Your amazing grace.
