

An Ecology of Grace and Justice for Our Times
Organizing in the Bio-Commons for Lutherans
April 20, 2012

Next Session on Capital/Work

NOTE: See Video again: “The Mondragon Experiment” Part I (54 minute version is posted to video.google.com, September 30, 2008.)

Reading List for April 20 at St. Andrew:

1. One Book of a Prophet (any OT prophet, see “A Lineup of Rulers” and pick a prophet, any prophet, long or short, known or unknown.)
2. “A Lineup of Rulers” from The Lutheran Study Bible, pp 1349-1357, 17-23.
3. “Sufficient, Sustainable Livelihood for All”, ELCA Social Statement, 1999.
4. “The Divine as Poetic” from Out of Babylon by Walter Brueggemann, pp 50-61
5. “MERS? It May Have Swallowed Your Loan” by Michael Powell and Gretchen Morgenson, The New York Times, March 5, 2011
6. “The Banks Still Want a Waiver” by Gretchen Morgenson, The New York Times, July 23, 2011.
7. Bad Money by Kevin Phillips
8. “Quote of the Day”, by Kevin Drum, Mother Jones, October 16, 2008.
9. Total Credit Market Debut as a % of GDP
10. “Four Deformations of the Apocalypse” by David Stockman, The New York Times, July 31, 2010.
11. Capitalism Hits the Fan by Richard Wolff.
12. The Financial Power Elite, by John Bellamy Foster and Hannah Holleman, Review of the Month, May 2010.
13. The End of Money and the Future of Civilization, by Thomas H. Greco.
14. “New Economy and New Ways to Do Money”, YES Magazine, Summer, 2009.