

Grounding for Action!

Organizing People of Faith to participate in Fossil Fuel Resistance Actions

> Tuesday, December 3 6:00pm - 9:00pm

The EcoFaith Recovery Beyond Fossil Fuels Organizing Team invites you to join us for our third Grounding for Action organizing meeting.

Join Christians and others of good will who are ready to move beyond fossil fuels and who seek spiritual grounding, shared values, common practices, and real relationships from which to act--and act powerfully!

Leaven Commons

(formerly Redeemer Lutheran Church at 20th and NE Killingsworth in Portland)

A meal and childcare will be provided

Note earlier start time

6:00pm-6:30pm: Shared Meal. The organizing team will provide several kinds of soup. Your "potluck" contributions are invited to help fill out the meal.

6:30pm-9:00pm: Session. Description below

Please let us know in advance if you need childcare, so we can plan appropriately. Include your need for childcare on the registration form when signing up online.

In our time together you can expect:

GROUNDING...

... in relationships and other practices from community organizing (IAF)

... in spirituality and scripture from the Christian tradition

... in values and language from the tradition of Kingian nonviolence

... in the wisdom of the 12-step Recovery movement.

and ACTION...

During our meeting, there will be:

...opportunity to reflect together about recent fossil fuels organizing and actions; and

...time to find out about and connect with upcoming actions led by the many groups working to move beyond fossil fuels. We rely on you leaders to bring detailed and accurate information about actions so we all may discern our level of interest and ability.

Grounding for Action will be facilitated by leaders from EcoFaith Recovery's Beyond Fossil Fuels Organizing Team.
