"We rise together for treaties. We rise together for climate. We rise together for our water. We rise together for one another. As Enbridge builds Line 3 through Anishinaabe treaty land and the Mississippi Headwaters, we continue to stand strong in our resistance."

— TREATY PEOPLE GATHERING

An interfaith delegation is traveling to Minnesota next weekend, June 5–8, for the Treaty People Gathering to stop the Line 3 pipeline that crosses Anishinaabe land and would transport tar sands to market. Line 3 would violate Indigenous treaty rights. It would also carry 700,000 barrels of tar sands oil from Canada each day. It would have a climate impact on par with Keystone, and pose an existential threat to waterways like the Mississippi.

There are a number of ways you can take action at home and support the Treaty People Gathering. What will you engage with?
